MOTION FOR ORDER OF CORRESPONDENCE

Comes Now, Emanuel Thomas Newman plaintiff pro-se, and moves this court for an order allowing him to correspond with his witnesses in the pending civil case.

Newman has been attempting to get correspondence through the normal administrative remedy procedures since this court denied the defendant's motion for summary judgement, and set the case to go to trial.

Newman's counselor Teddy Edgecomb, has failed to respond at all to the numerous cop-outs or B.P.-8's that Newman has given to him requesting to be allowed to correspond with the witnesses his pending civil case. Newman showed him this court's order stating that the matter was set for trial. Newman has shown him numerous documents, affidavits from said witnesses, letters from the United States Attorney's Office in that district concerning plaintiff's witnesses. Still, nothing but procrastination from counselor Edgecomb. Newman then explained that by failing to address this matter he was denying this plaintiff access to the court, because without prior contact with his witnesses, plaintiff would be unable to perpare for trial.

On October 6, 2003, Newman again filed a BP-8 to counselor Edgecomb, and on November 10, 2003 Newman received this court's order setting trial for February 2, 2004. Still, counselor Edgecomb has not responded to Newman's request for correspondence to his listed witnesses, and the trial date is fast coming into being.

Therefore, Newman request that this court issue an order granting him limited "legal" correspondence with his listed witnesses:

P.O. BOX 3000
White Deer, Pa 17887

Lewisburg, PA 17837

Dr. Whyatt, (Eye Doctor)
U.S.P. Allenwood
P.O. BOX 3000

This court's order will have to be taken seriously, and this plaintiff will be able to notify his witnesses of the upcoming trial date as well as requesting written statements from them.

Respectfully submitted by,
Emanuel T. Newman
